

Feedback analysis of the students (2019-20)

In the year 2019-20 the students of the college were highly satisfied with the different aspects of teaching-learning and evaluation methods, like: class preparation, communication, teaching-approaches, internal evaluation process, promoting internship, mentoring process for personality development of the students, provided opportunities for learning and growth of the students. The students were also highly satisfied with teacher's student-centric and supportive approaches, their efforts for preparing students mentally for the upcoming challenges of the world with moral encouragement and teacher's encouragement for co-curricular activities and efforts for making students inculcate different soft skills, life skills, human values and employability skills etc. Teacher's methods of teaching and also their availability to the students during lockdown through various online modes (like: Zoom, Google Meet, Go to Meet, Skype, Hangouts) and LMS (like: Google Classroom, Moodle) were also highly satisfactory to the students. Besides, the students were also very satisfied with the syllabus covered through the face to face as well as online mode. Thus the overall quality of teaching-learning-process in the college was made students highly satisfied.

The library facilities were very satisfactory to the students as well, such as: accessibility to books and e-resource, standard of journals and magazines of the library, effectiveness of computer literacy program conducted by library, cooperation of library staffs, quality of library services etc. Besides, students marked their satisfaction to the functioning of the internet inside the library as well.

Students were also highly satisfied with the bus services including cleanliness inside the college buses and the behaviour of bus staffs and also very satisfied with the availability of seats in the college bus.

The canteen services like the cleanliness and arrangement and the menu and rates were highly satisfactory to the students. Besides, they are also satisfied with the quality of food and canteen staffs.

Students were highly satisfied with the sanitary and basic facilities of college campus, such as: electricity and generator facility, availability of dustbins in the campus. The hygiene, cleanliness and condition of toilets and the first aid facility were also up to the very satisfactory level of the students. They were also satisfied with the drinking water facility in the campus.